

Sadara Announces Marco ten Bruggencate as Board Member

JUBAIL INDUSTRIAL CITY, Saudi Arabia, Nov 30, 2023 -- Sadara Chemical Company (Sadara) has appointed Marco ten Bruggencate to its board of directors as a non-executive member. Bruggencate replaces board member Jane Palmieri, the company said in a statement to Tadawul on Thursday, Nov. 30, 2023.

Sadara's board of directors accepted Palmieri's resignation, effective as of Nov. 26, 2023.

Bruggencate currently serves as the Commercial Vice President for Packaging and Specialty Plastics EMEA at Dow.

Since joining Dow in 2000 as the Commercial Manager Polyurethanes, Bruggencate has held several leadership positions during his association with the company.

Bruggencate holds a master's degree in business economics from the Vrije University, Amsterdam.

About Sadara:

Sadara is a joint venture developed by the Saudi Arabian Oil Company (Saudi Aramco) and The Dow Chemical Company. Sadara is a multi-billion-dollar world-scale chemical complex in Jubail Industrial City II in Saudi Arabia's Eastern Province. Comprised of 26 world-scale manufacturing units, the Sadara chemical complex is the world's largest to be built in a single phase and is the only chemical company in the Middle East to use refinery liquids, such as naphtha and natural gasoline, as feedstock. By using best-in-class technologies to crack refinery liquid feedstock, Sadara will enable many industries that either currently do not exist in Saudi Arabia or only exist through imports of raw materials.
